Read 1 Corinthians 2:2, Romans 12:2, 2 Corinthians 4:8

Do you feel like faith is more or less challenging than it was for you a year ago? Five years ago? If so, how?

Paul urged the Romans to not be conformed, or pressed into shape, by the world around them. What do you see pressing in on you the most?

According to Paul, the alternative to being conformed is to be transformed. The word for transformation means "to have after having been with." In what ways have you seen your own character be transformed by Christ?

What is one area of change or strengthening in your relationship with God that you would like to see most in yourself during the next year?

Is there an action step you can think of that you would like to take to invest in your growth as a follower of Jesus?
