Read Galatians 5 & 6

What does the word freedom imply to you?

List as many types of freedom as you can that we know from Scripture have already been secured for us through the cross. Which stand out to you as what you are most needing to remember?

The sermon identified four circles of unfreedom: feeling out of control, feeling judged, feeling trapped and feeling burdened. Which circle represents the way in which you feel the least free right now?

Jesus never promised that we would be free from temptation, struggle, pain, persecution, conflict or responsibility. Yet sometimes those are what cause us to feel the least free. Which of those do you find yourself wanting out of the most? Is it possible to have freedom without those changing?

Rather than asking for more freedom, what would it look like to invite Christ into your circle of unfreedom? If there is freedom wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, take a moment to invite his presence to speak into your most bound places.
