Read Isaiah 6:1-8

When you think of holiness, how do you define it? Is it a word you feel any personal connection to, and if so, what does that look like?

Isaiah became profoundly aware of his own unholiness as he had his vision of God. Have you ever had an encounter with God that has triggered conviction in you? How did you respond?

Receiving grace when it is offered is always incredibly humbly and often difficult. Can you think of a time when someone showed it to you and you were able to receive it?

The message talked about how God's love is a holy love. What difference (if any) do you think that makes for you or how you think about God's love?

Spend some time reading the Isaiah passage as well as Revelation 4. How are the passages similar and different? Take some time to meditate on each section and praise God for his holiness.
