Read 1 John 1:1-4

Have your thoughts around church changed during the course of the pandemic? If so, how?

Compare 1 John 1 with John 1. What themes do you see overlapping?

John emphasizes the pre-existence of Christ (see also Revelation 13:8). How does that impact us?

The fact that Jesus became fully human put him right in the middle of all the issues people deal with. How do you think the church can follow him in engaging with the world at large? What would that mean for you personally?

John's message came from what he had seen and heard. What have you seen and heard God do in your life over the past year?
