Read 1 John 2:12-14

Do you have someone in your life that you consider a spiritual father or mother? What stands out about them?

Which is more difficult for you: Listening to people who are older or younger? Why is that?

Read Psalm 145:4. How does it change the way you read it to know that the word translated as "praise" or "commend" also means "to soothe, to still"?

In Joel 2:28-29 we see God working across generational lines. What are some ways that could impact the way we look at church ministry?

Identify one person older than you and one younger than you who you'd like to invest in. How might your life encourage them in their faith? Ask God for opportunities to cultivate those relationships.
