Read Mark 2:1-2

Think of someone that you're been bringing to Jesus, or longing to bring to Jesus. What would it look like to trust what He's doing for them, regardless of whether it's exactly what you've been hoping to see?

If you've been down on your mat lately – take a moment to reflect and thank God for the gifts you already have.

The crowd at the miracle has the chance to learn the difference between a good gift and the greatest gift. What can we do to keep the most important thing at our focus and all other things secondary?

What's an area in your life where you can give God the authority that is truly His?
