Read Acts 1:15-26

When in your life have you had to retool your approach? Why did you do it and how did it go?

How does your faith impact your decision making? What do you see in the process the disciples used that might inform your own approach?

Peter acknowledged the very difficult reality of Judas' betrayal and death. Why is admitting reality so difficult? Do you think the spiritual element makes it even more complex for Christians?

The disciples exercised a great deal of freedom in how they chose another apostle and by adding a new personality to their close knit group. When do you find it hardest to be open to new?

The disciples saw their mission as bearing witness to the truth of the resurrection. What retooling might help you as you work toward that same mission?
