Read Acts 3

Look at Isaiah 35:3-8. How does this prophecy add significance to this man's healing?

For this man to receive the gift Peter offered, he had to leave behind the life he knew as a beggar, the identity he had as "the lame man" and the mentality he had about his own need. What understanding of yourself have you had to abandon to follow Christ?

This man's miraculous recover did more than heal him; it testified to the crowd and the religious leaders about the power of Jesus. What is one example you've seen of how something God did for one person bore witness to someone else?

Peter stopped and saw the man behind the limitations and labels. What helps you get past the surface impressions people give to see their souls underneath?

Who is one person you know who is currently outside the gate? Take some time to pray for them and what God might have for you to offer them.
